MORE FIGHTING.

According to semi-official information received at the Spanish legation at Tangier, yesterday, the French forces at Casablanca, under the command of Gen. Drude, suffered a serious repulse at the hands of the Moors Monday. Moorish troops estimated to number 7,000 men, and equipped with field guns and modern rifles, not only drove the French back to the city wall, but menaced the town to the extent that the authorities found it expedient to request aid from a Spanish war ship in the harbor to repel the attack.

The French troop ship Artois left Tangier last night hurriedly with troops and machine guns on board. This force is going to the assistance of Casablanca. A dispatch from Casablanca, dated Sunday, says, the timely arrival of Gen. Drude with reinforcements saved Col. de Freytag's reconnoitering column from annihilation near Taddert. The arrival of re-enforcements turned the tide, and, with a loss of one officer and two men killed and nine wounded, the French left more than sixty Moors dead on the field.

TROUBLE ON BATTLESHIP.

Race trouble broke out Monday aboard the battleship Minnesota, at the Norfolk navy yard, and a negro cook to the warrant officers' mess was roughly handled amid threats of lynching by the 700 men aboard the battleship. Details of the affair are difficult to obtain, owing to the reticence of naval officers, but it is reported that the negro "impersonated" one of the white seamen. Some of the more angry members of the crew wanted to lynch the negro, while others, who picked him up bodily, were making to the rail to throw him overboard, when restrained by Assistant Boatswain Footsman. The sailors say that the negro was at fault, and that they could not stand to see their shipmate treated as he was by the negro. Quiet was quickly restored when the officers became cognizant of the situation. The negro left the ship after the trouble was over.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The distress of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in prosperous Kansas today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time the nomadist. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me. The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MURDERED IN HOTEL.

A. H. Berry, about thirty years of age, of Rome, Ga., was found dead in his room at the Hotel Fairfax in Norfolk yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock. His head was crushed in as though he had been struck by some blunt instrument and his throat was cut from ear to ear, probably with a razor. As his money and other valuables are missing, robbery is supposed to have been the motive of the crime.

Berry was discovered lying prone upon the floor in a pool of his own blood. The murdered man had been visiting the Jamestown Exposition. He was a son of George Berry, of Rome, Ga. His family is prominent and very popular. Berry left Rome three weeks ago for a trip to the north. He had been in New York and other cities, and was on his way home when he stopped at Norfolk.

A LOVER SHOOTS HIMSELF.

W. R. Bolton, aged 24 years, of Roseland, Nelson county, lies at the University Hospital in a critical condition from a bullet wound in his left breast. Piqued because the young lady upon whom he lavished his affections left his company for that of another young man, Bolton made an attempt at suicide in the girl's presence. When picked up after the shooting he said to his sweetheart: "I tried to send it through my heart." The young man was taken to Charlottesville by his father, who refuses to give the name of the young lady. She was so shocked that she is now ill at her home, at Variety Mills.

Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal Catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrane that lines the air passages. It is made to overcome the disease, not to fool the patient by a short, deceptive relief. There is no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All drug stores sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.
